INTRODUCTION

The unicorns have had enough of Rainbow Valley. They love playing hide-and-seek, but they've exhausted all of their favourite hiding places and have decided to leave their tranquil forest in search of unbridled adventure.

Ruby, the leader of the blessing (did you know that's the name for a group of unicorns?) has carefully planned a whistle-stop tour of the best hide-and-seek sites the world has to offer. One thing is for sure, the unicorns are about to embark on the trip of a lifetime!

Can you find all seven rainbow-coloured unicorns in every scene? They are brilliant at hiding, so you'll have to search high and low!

Find the answers plus extra things to spot at the back of the book.

THE UNICORNS OF RAINBOW VALLEY

RUBY

Ruby rules the roost in Rainbow Valley. She loves organizing group trips and days out. She has a big heart and is always there to offer a helping hoof to the other animals in the Valley.

BLOSSOM

Blossom is the most sensible of the unicorns. During a game of hide-and-seek, she would prefer to be searching systematically rather than hiding behind a bush or crammed inside a log.

STARDUST

Stardust always has a smile on his face. He fancies himself as a bit of a comedian and is always cracking jokes. He's the youngest of the group and is often the first to get found in hide-and-seek because he can't stop giggling.

LEAF

Leaf is fearless. He likes adventure and can often be found exploring uncharted areas of the forest. He's always trying to entice other unicorns on his expeditions, but none of them dare follow him into the eerie shadows.

SNOWFLAKE

Snowflake is a wise and sensitive soul. He doesn't talk much, but he always finds the time to listen to his fellow unicorns and to offer advice. Snowflake is brilliant at hiding and often the last to be found in games of hide-and-seek.

LUNA

Luna is the fastest unicorn in the land. She loves racing against other animals and is excited to see just how fast creatures outside the Valley can sprint. She dreams of winning a trophy at the Fantastical Tournament for Magical Creatures one day.

AMETHYST

Amethyst is the cleverest creature in Rainbow Valley. She often has her head buried in a book and is always trying to learn new skills. Amethyst will be going to Unicorniversity next year and she cannot wait.

SIGHTSEEING

The busy city is a far cry from the tranquillity and open spaces of Rainbow Valley and the unicorns love it. Ruby's organized a packed itinerary for their day of sightseeing. There are so many attractions to see, but she's most excited about visiting the famous bronze Pegasus statue. He's so handsome.

Amethyst has downloaded the audio-guide tour, and is fascinated to learn about the history of different buildings while exploring the city on the hoof.

MOUNTAIN BIKING

The unicorns usually ride unicycles, so they are amazed by all the bicycles zooming past at high speed. Luna is sprinting after the other bikers. She wants to finish in first place and win the big trophy.

Daredevil Leaf is in his element, seeking out the highest ledges to jump from. The chaos of clattering wheels is too much for Blossom, though. She's sticking close to the spectators.

FESTIVAL

Ruby managed to get the unicorns tickets to a music festival. She's chatting to some roadies about life on tour, while Stardust is rocking out on stage. Snowflake is feeling apprehensive – he needs the toilet, but the portaloos are a bit 'unmagical'.

Amethyst, on the other hoof, has really let loose – she's right in the action, thrashing her mane about and strutting her stuff.

CAMPING

The unicorns are glad to be back in the woods, but they've never seen a forest as busy or noisy as this one before.

There are hundreds of people in the woodland clearing and they are all chatting, dancing and playing instruments. Ruby is in the thick of it, roasting marshmallows by the roaring campfire and revelling in the new experience. Blossom prefers peace and quiet and is doing her very best to go unnoticed.

WHALE WATCHING

Brrrrrrrrrr! It's a bit chilly out here for the unicorns. They can't even wear woolly hats because of their horns. Nevertheless,

Blossom is entranced by the dancing penguins and by the enormous whales.

Snowflake has pranced on to the ice to get closer to the action. He's somehow managed to push a few penguins off their perch and he's trying to apologize before they get too angry.

FIREWORK DISPLAY

BANG! FIZZ! CRACKLE! The unicorns are a bit spooked by the loud noises at the firework display, but Snowflake is in awe of all the bright colours. He's trying to get his hooves on a sparkler so he can have a go at writing his name in the air.

Leaf, being the brave creature that he is, is also having a brilliant time. He likes the booming sound of the rockets and the bright glow of the explosions.

MUSEUM

A vacation wouldn't be complete without a trip to the museum. Amethyst is in her element, having a terrific time reading all about ancient civilizations and artefacts. She's even found something that claims to be made from unicorn horn, which has given her the heebie jeebies!

Luna, on the other hoof, has never been so bored in her life and cannot wait to leave.

ICE RINK

The unicorns have never skated before and it definitely shows. Stardust hasn't been able to stand up yet and Leaf has lost count of the number of times he's taken a tumble.

Snowflake is the only one who seems to have mastered the technique. He's performing pirouettes and skating backwards. Blossom is a bit miffed, though, at having to hire two sets of skates. It's an expensive hobby!

BEACH

Surf's up and the unicorns are loving the relaxing vibes of beach life.

Blossom is scared to go near the water after watching a documentary about sharks, but Leaf is keen to explore. He's frantically searching for a marine creature called a narwhal, which has a tusk that looks like a unicorn's horn. Amethyst has told him that he's in the wrong continent, whatever that means!

THEATRE

FILM PREMIERE

LIGHTS, CAMERA, ACTION!

The unicorns are hot to trot tonight after landing themselves an invite to the biggest film release of the year. Stardust is making the most of his five minutes of fame, telling jokes to every celebrity he meets on the red carpet.

Amethyst and Luna are in competition to see who can get the most autographs, while Leaf is steering clear of the spotlight. He's more interested in the tasty food stalls.

ZOO

The unicorns are in awe of all the incredible creatures that live at the zoo.

Amethyst was chatting to the chimps, but she's now marching with the penguins, trying to communicate through dance and strange-sounding squawks. She's not having much luck. Luna is also captivated. She's testing the elephants' memories by asking them all sorts of questions, such as why are their ears so big, why are they scared of mice and where did they go to school?

CITY CENTRE

Snow is starting to fall in this exotic city and there's a magical feel in the air. The unicorns are delighted that their visit has coincided with a military parade, and some of the unicorns are hoping that the cavalry horses will come by soon.

Ruby and Blossom are busy admiring the colourful domed cathedral, which looks beautiful all lit up in the dark. Luna's had enough of standing still – she's cantering around the edge of the main square trying to keep warm.

ISLAND HOPPING

An island stopover is the perfect place for the unicorns to relax and rest their weary hooves. Ruby is desperate to get out on the water in one of the rafts so she can explore the most remote parts of the island.

Amethyst is in awe of the huge statues that are scattered about. The locals tell her the heads were carved over 1,000 years ago and she's busy trying to figure out how such gigantic objects were transported to this place all those years ago.

TEMPLE VISIT

Finally, some peace and quiet for Snowflake. He's trotted off into the depths of the temple for some gentle meditation and contemplation. He's blown away by the beauty and precision of the zen garden, and is keen to create something similar when the unicorns return to Rainbow Valley.

Outside is a hive of activity and the other unicorns are marvelling at the wonderful sights – from colourful kites to exquisite traditional costumes.

THEATRE

Ruby decided that no trip would be complete without a spot of culture, so she whisks them away to the theatre.

Some of the unicorns are treading the boards, putting their acting skills to the test, while others are just as happy to sit and watch while eating ice cream.

Stardust is not happy. Fellow theatregoers keep telling him to be quiet, so he's left the stalls and made his way on to the bright lights of the stage.

SWIMMING POOL

The blessing is having a blast by the pool. Blossom has just been told off for bombing and Stardust is rushing down the slide. Leaf cannot wait for his turn – he’s been queuing for what feels like an eternity and is growing impatient. He keeps prodding the person in front of him with his horn hoping to hurry up the process.

Luna is worried that the chlorine is going to turn her hair green and she really doesn’t want to end up looking like Leaf!

SAFARI

The unicorns are on safari and they're having a wild time. Luna is frantically searching for a creature capable of keeping up with her in a sprint. Amethyst has told her about an animal called a cheetah that can run over 100 kilometres per hour and Luna is extremely excited.

Stardust is in stitches, laughing hysterically at a funny-looking animal called a warthog. The rest of the unicorns are basking in the brilliant sunshine, relaxing before their long journey back to Rainbow Valley.
